I want to hear what you have to say. . .

- Is state government providing you with the services you need?
- Are your tax dollars being spent wisely?
- Is there a problem with a state agency I can help you with?

Do you have a question about state government? How about some comments? Please take a moment to write me a note. I want to hear from you!

ELECTION MAILING RESTRICTIONS GO INTO EFFECT SOON

RCW 42.52.185 restricts legislators from sending more than two mailings in the 12-month period beginning on December 1 of the year prior to their election to office and extending through the November 30 following the election. This restriction, which includes e-newsletters, also prohibits unsolicited individual letters, with some exceptions. Communication with you is very important to me. Although I will not be allowed to initiate written communications with you using state resources (with the exception of the two newsletters), I am allowed to respond to communications initiated by you. So I encourage you to write or e-mail me at any time you have questions or comments, and I will be glad to respond.

In Touch
Connecting you to your state legislator

Dear Friends,

Staying in touch with those I'm elected to represent is an important part of my job. That's why I'm sending you this mailer and asking for your response on those issues important to you. I also want to encourage you to get connected to your Legislature and become involved. Information about the Legislature is as close as your keyboard and your television. I've included Web addresses and ways you can stay in touch. Please don't hesitate to contact me with your concerns, questions and opinions.

Sincerely,

Rep. Dan Kristiansen

Go inside the Legislature, online

Want to look up a bill? A law? Our state constitution? You can do all this and find a wealth of other useful information at the Legislature's Internet home page, shown here (http://www.leg.wa.gov/legislature).

Type the Internet address (officially known as the URL: it's the line beginning with "http") in the address line of your computer's Internet browser, and press "enter." Use your mouse or key commands to move around the web page.

Click on Bill Search to find information about a bill or a topic.

Here's a great link to start with: "Visiting the Legislature." This will take you to a page that tells you how to participate in the process, how laws are made, and visitor information about the state Capitol.

Look for "links" (they're underlined or in a different color, or both) and click on the ones you want to explore.

KEEPING YOU IN TOUCH

Government can often seem distant and confusing. Knowing whom to contact when you have a problem or concern can make a large difference. As your state representative, I am committed to help make government more accessible and accountable to you. Below is a quick-access directory of phone numbers and Web addresses so that you may easily contact your government officials. Post this near your computer, your telephone, or someplace where you can easily find it.

WATCH OR LISTEN TO TVW

TVW (TV Washington), a non-profit public affairs network, broadcasts the Legislature during session on cable TV throughout the state. Its Internet site (www.tvw.org) allows you to listen to legislative presentations, debates and votes as they happen. Call TVW for programming information at (360) 725-3999, or visit TVW's Website at www.tvw.org.
